

“Missional Imagination

2019 Western Region Clergy Muster The Glennie School, Toowoomba 23rd – 26th September 2019

An invitation to all clergy in the Western Region:

Dear friends,

I'm looking forward to us gathering together at the Glennie School later in the month for this year's Clergy Muster. The theme is intended to help us think about the challenge of being imaginative and intentional in the ministry contexts that God has called us to & I attach a program to give you a sense of what's in store.

Helen will be in touch later this week via email to confirm the booking process, and I enclose with this invitation a copy of Bruce Pascoe's book 'Dark Emu'. I think this book provokes us to think about Australian history in a new way and I look forward to hearing your response. I invite you to read 'Dark Emu' before the Muster because we'll unpack it with a panel of wise people, and have opportunity to share questions.

As special guest I look forward to the Reverend Glenn Loughrey being with us throughout our time together. Glenn is a Wiradjuri man, artist, story-teller, and an Anglican priest based in Melbourne. I also look forward to Archbishop Phillip joining us on Thursday morning for a Eucharist in which there will be opportunity for the renewal of Ordination Vows, and anointing for ministry.

God's blessing to you – and look forward to seeing you at the Muster!

Yours in Christ,

+Cam
