

BE BRAVE. MAKE CHANGE.

NATIONAL RECONCILIATION WEEK 2022
27 MAY – 3 JUNE  #NRW2022

Resources for churches

National Reconciliation Week (NRW) and The Week of Prayer for Reconciliation are held concurrently each year between 27 May and 3 June. These dates commemorate two significant milestones in the reconciliation journey — the anniversaries of the successful 1967 referendum and the High Court Mabo decision.

As a church, we are committed to reconciliation with First Nations people. National Reconciliation Week and the Week of Prayer for Reconciliation gives us an opportunity to action our beliefs.

Here are a few ideas about how you might celebrate these important ‘weeks’ in your church between Wednesday 27 May and Wednesday 3 June in 2022:

- Start meetings during Reconciliation Week with an acknowledgement of country.
- Include an acknowledgement of country during worship services.
- Host a small group study using one of these resources:
 - Australians Together: Sharing our Story
 - A Voice in the Wilderness
- Focus your liturgy on reconciliation with First Nations people.
- Use prayers relevant to reconciliation and First Nations people.
- Display Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander flags inside or outside your church.
- Play videos of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples speaking about reconciliation during worship services.
- Share anglican focus stories about Reconciliation in newsletters and on websites and social media during National Reconciliation Week.

Additional resources

Additional resources can be found on the Reconciliation Australia website.