

Voluntary Assisted Dying and Pastoral Care

Conscientious Objection

1

PERSONAL REFLECTION

- Do you have reasons of conscience around supporting people (or their family) going through the Voluntary Assisted Dying (VAD) process? What are they?
- What are you prepared to do?

2

SPECIFIC QUESTIONS FOR CONSIDERATION

At the moment, I am prepared to...

- Support a family member(s) of someone going through the VAD process.
 - Any exceptions to this?
 - What are your concerns or issues?
- Support a person who is thinking about requesting VAD.
 - Any exceptions to this?
 - What are your concerns or issues?
- Support a person who is in the process of being assessed for VAD.
 - Any exceptions to this?
 - What are your concerns or issues?
- Support a person who would like you to be part of their VAD end-of-life support.
 - Leading up to them administering drugs.
 - Being present when they are administering drugs.
 - Being present at their death.
 - What are your concerns or issues?
- Conduct a funeral of someone who has received VAD?
 - Any exceptions to this?
 - What are your concerns or issues?